

Informational Meeting

Informational Meeting on the Einstein Centre for Catalysis

The Einstein Center of Catalysis is built upon the interdisciplinary and interinstitutional research of the Cluster of Excellence Unifying Concepts of Catalysis (UniCat). Prof. Peter Hildebrandt of the Institute of Chemistry at TU Berlin will chair the new Center. The Einstein Center of Catalysis will serve to further develop new developments and advancements of those methods that will facilitate a breakthrough in understanding the dynamics of chemical and biological catalysts.
